The picture shown herewith from Ridpath's History, the original of which was displayed at the World's Fair at Chicago, marks but one event out of thousands which are fully described and illustrated in the world-famed publication,

The Present European War

The great monarchies of Europe are now engaged in the greatest tragedy of human history. If you would know the underlying causes which have led up to this great conflict, the deep racial antipathies, the mutual jealousies, the commercial rivalries, the sting of past defeats, the vaulting ambitions for world empire, then you should place Ridpath's History of the World in your home. All the causes—Austria's defeat by Napoleon on a hundred battlefields, France's defeat by Germany under the leadership of the Iron Chancellor, Bismarck, Russia's loss of the Dardanelles, shutting off her outlet to the sea, England's opposition to the growing military and naval power of Germany—all these and hundreds of other causes may be clearly discerned and understood by reading this History of the World.

THE REASON for Dr. Ridpath's enviable position

as a historian is his wonderfully beautiful style, a style no other historian in any generation has ever equaled. He pictures the great historical events as though they were happening before your eyes; he carries you with him to see the battles of old; to meet kings and queens and warriors; to sit in the Roman senate; to march against Saladin and his dark-skinned followers; to sail the southern seas with Drake; to circumnavigate the globe with Magellan; to know the past as you know the present. He combines absorbing interest with supreme reliability and makes the heroes of history real living men and women, and about them he weaves the rise and fall of empires in such a fascinating style that history becomes as absorbingly interesting as the greatest of fiction. Hundreds who read this have decided to buy Ridpath some day: now is the time.

Six Thousand Years of History

Ridpath takes you back to the dawn of history, long before the pyramids of Egypt were built; down through the romantic, troubled times of Chaldea's grandeur and Assyria's magnificence; of Babylon's wealth and luxury; of Grecian and Roman splendor; of Mohammedan culture and refinement; to the dawn of yesterday. He covers every race, every nation, every time, and holds you spellbound, by his wonderful eloquence. Nothing more interesting, absorbing and inspiring was ever written by man.

The Rise and Fall of Nations

To read history is to become acquainted with the tremendous evolution of the human race from its infancy and childhood to its youth and maturity. To know so vast a fact; to become acquainted with the nature and extent of human development in the earth, is to possess the highest form of education to which man may aspire. A knowledge of history is the most wholesome influence in the civilized life of man. It is the one great book out of which mankind may learn the story of the past, with its profound lessons and warnings; the story of the present with its agitations and wars, and the prophecy of the future, with its promises and hopes. And the one history which has been endorsed by the scholarship of the world as the best ever written is Ridpath's History of the World.
